PRESIDENT'S CORNER

I would like to say a big thank you to all who participated in both camps.

At Camp Paws and Pals Sally Gordon did a nice video of some of the things we did at the weeklong camp. I hope it was put on our website and Facebook page. Mary taught obedience; Sally taught tricks; Ann did scentwork and carting. Little Doodles loves his cart and really struts his stuff. Of course, we had many meet the breeds, agility, and art projects to fill our mornings Wendy did a little talk on guide dogs, Cheryl was there to tell us about Canine Companions, and Noel showed us that even deaf dogs can do agility.

This past week was Cops and Kids at which we had 35 at risk campers. Meet the breeds was in the morning before which we learned what to do when a dog is approaching you and how to approach a leashed dog. Some fill in work was needed so Laurie's Buddha and Ziva did some tricks.

Lunch went very smoothly but I still don't understand how the smallest child ate 4 slices of pizza. Lunch went smoothly as I said except one sundae fell on the floor. Ziva helped with the clean-up.

Afternoon had children cheering for Honda catching the frizbee and Tank top playing keep away with his ball. Fli did tricks as did Buddha; Noel came in for agility. Ziva and Fli did agility with Ben working Ziva. Debbie Brabson came in with Mick to do scentwork and little Doodles did his thing. A few others tried scentwork including Meatball and Buddha.

The children seemed to have a good time and thanked us profusely.

What the counselors are most proud of is that both camps learned enough about dogs that they earned their AKC patches.

I can't say thank you enough and I don't want to miss anyone but thank you Karen, Bob, Donna, Barbara, Leslie, .Marsha, Rip, Pam, Mary B, Lorie, Jewel, and all the others from both clubs.

Edna
